Eric Zarnikow Associate Administrator Office of Capital Access U.S. Small Business Administration, to Appear April 3rd On The Neal Asbury Show on WZAB-AM

Eric Zarnikow was appointed associate administrator for SBA's Office of Capital Access in November 2007. As head of SBA's small business finance programs, Zarnikow manages and oversees SBA's lending, venture capital, international trade and surety bond programs.

With more than 25 years in the private sector prior to joining the SBA, Zarnikow has an established track record as a leader and solid executive experience. Before coming to SBA, he was senior vice president, chief financial officer and treasurer of The ServiceMaster Company, where he also played a major role in the sale of the company to a private equity firm.

Before working for The ServiceMaster Company, Zarnikow was the vice president and treasurer of Gaylord Container Corporation, where he completed the company's initial public offering and listing on the American Stock Exchange.

Zarnikow's extensive corporate experience in the areas of corporate finance, risk management, investment oversight and financial planning makes him extremely well suited to lead SBA's Office of Capital Access.

Zarnikow has served as an independent board member and Audit Committee chairman of Carcaustar Industries, a publicly traded company with approximately $1 billion in annual revenues. He also has served on the board and held several positions on the executive committee of the Interstitial Cystitis Association, a non-profit organization dedicated to fighting interstitial cystitis.

Zarnikow holds a bachelor's degree from Iowa State University and a master's of business administration from Drake University.

The Neal Asbury Show tackles key trade issues every Friday from 5:00 PM until 6:00 PM on WZAB-AM 880.

The show is streamed live on line at WWW.880THEBIZ.COM, which is affiliated with Bloomberg Radio and CNBC.
